Instructions for Manuscript Submission

- Manuscripts can be submitted as a Word document to Dr. Sergey Sayapin, Co-Editor-in-Chief (sergey.sayapin@yahoo.com). Please make sure that the submitted manuscript is the final version, not a draft, as it is not possible to make radical changes further along in the process.
- Please note that your contribution should contain between 8.000-10.000 words, including an abstract, up to five keywords and footnotes.
- Use as little formatting as possible for the text, and use only bold and italics to mark paragraph headers. Do not use underlining. All lay-out specifications are taken care of by the graphic designer.
- Use only one font and refrain from using end of line hyphenation.
- If the Word document contains illustrations other than tables (including figures, photographs, drawings, etc.), place them in the text (preferred formats are: .jpg/jpeg, .eps and .ai). Label each picture and clearly indicate where it should be placed. Illustrations should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. Please note that most images from the Internet cannot be used because of their low resolution and because they may be copyright protected, and that the journal will be printed in black and white.
- The author is responsible for and should always ensure that previously published material (including images) is either free of use or that (written) permission for its use has been granted.

Abstract, Keywords and Affiliation

Authors are further requested to submit their affiliation (profession and place of work), a short abstract (max. 200 words) of the article and five keywords together with their article. This information will also feature on our website.

Examples of author affiliation:

[Author], [titles], is a [position] at [place of work, country].

Spelling

Spelling follows the Oxford English Dictionary or the Concise Oxford Dictionary. If there is a choice we prefer the endings -ize and -ization as opposed to -ise or -isation.

References (Citations)

Please provide full references in the footnotes at first mention, and shortened references for repeat citations:

A. Books

Author, Title, Edition, Place of publication, Publisher, Year, Page.

Example: H. Fraser & R. Joyce, The Federation House: Australia's Own Style, 2nd ed., Sydney, Lansdowne Press, 1986, pp. 420-425.

B. Articles

Author, 'Title of article' (between single quotes), Periodical, Volume, No., (Month and) year, Periodical pages.

Example: R.A. Goldthwaite, 'The Florentine Palace as Domestic Architecture', American Historical Review, Vol. 77, No. 4, 1972, pp. 977-1012.

C. Contributions in Compilations and Edited Volumes

GA Res. 41/133, 4 December 1986.

SC Res. 181, 7 August 1963.

IV. National Case Law

Follow the official national style as much as possible. If the result would be unclear, use the following basic rule:

Party v. Party, volume reporter page (court date).

Example: Smith v. Jones, 32 JNl 369 (Sup.Ct. 1867).

Other

- Authors may use up to four levels of section headings:

1	First Subheading
1.1	Second Subheading
1.1.1	Third Subheading
1.1.1.1	Fourth Subheading
- In article titles and headings, all nouns, verbs and adjectives should begin with capital letters.
- Use of italics: Italics may be used to indicate emphasis. Additionally, terms or phrases from other languages that are not established in English (e.g. rechten) can also be italicized. Titles of books, films, newspapers, magazines, journals and plays should also be placed in italics. Do not italicize words from other languages that have been established in English (e.g. per se, en route, Zeitgeist).

- A (short) quotation in the text can be put between double quotation marks ("..."). A quotation within a quotation is put between single quotation marks ('...'). If a quotation is longer than 30 words, please leave out the quotation marks, indent the quotation and insert an extra line between the lines above and below the quotation.
- Always insert footnote numbers in the text after the last punctuation mark.
For example: ... done.⁹
